DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS
OCCOQUAN FACILITY

April 30, 1999

As Mayor of the District of Columbia, I would like to salute the employees of the District of Columbia Department of Corrections, Occoquan Facility, for your service to the government and residents of the District of Columbia.

Even though the Occoquan Facility will officially close its doors, your dedication and outstanding commitment are worthy of public praise and recognition. As a result of your achievements and accomplishments over the years, you are true role models who merit the esteem of all people. Each of you has been willing to take on many tasks and has faithfully answered the call of duty. You have exhibited the highest level of competence and your distinguished service is to be commended.

On behalf of the residents of the District of Columbia, you have my best wishes in your future endeavors.

Anthony A. Williams
Mayor, District of Columbia
